

(UN-) BELIEVING PASTORS///

Whoever moves within Christian circles knows too well that not all Christians believe in healing. On the one hand they do believe that God can heal – in a general sense. However, it is difficult even for some Christian leaders to believe that healing is part of redemption. This was the case in the region where our Gospel meetings took place in India.

However, the Lord has His own methods to help 'unbelieving' Christians to believe. The second night of the meetings, the Lord healed a man who could neither sit nor walk for four years. Three men had to carry him. He is well-known throughout the whole village. That made an impact! Later it was said, that even the Pastors who did not believe in healing now believed.

Even in the church services many miracles happened and long-term diseases were healed. Amongst others a woman was healed from tumors in the neck and belly. Another lady who had had cancer, had been operated 30 years ago. Much tissue had been removed and her neck was harmed. She had her head tilted to one side, since. Jesus healed her! After 30 years of suffering, she was able to straighten her neck again. Hallelujah!

On the last evening of the mission trip to India Evangelist Schott preached in a traditional Indian church. A powerful time of prayer followed. Evangelist Schott was asked to pray for each and everyone with the laying on of hands, which took quite a while. Miracles happened and people were filled with the Holy Spirit.

Weeks later we learned that the church service that night caused a revival in the church. It was their first experience of that kind with the Holy Spirit – like a Pentecost just for that church. Now the Christians are attending the church again and more healing testimonies of that particular service followed. Thank you Jesus!

Our coworker in India had done a great job and the events were well prepared. As it turned out, even the spiritual world was prepared. In a village as well as in a church people already new through the spirit that Evangelist Schott was coming. The heavenly postal service is faster than any email.

MAKE THE GOSPEL HEARD

Today, more than ever, we have to make the Gospel heard! We are living in very fast-paced times and we are constantly surrounded by media, demanding our attention.

Starting with the advertisement that floods our mailboxes, social networks that want to be maintained, up to the disturbing TV commercials that interrupt a movie at the most exciting point. All are competing for our attention. People do more and more things simultaneously.

The Gospel is threatened to drown in the noise of this time. Even in the times of Jesus that was already the case. Jesus gives a clear command to make the Gospel heard:

Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation! (Mk 16:15)

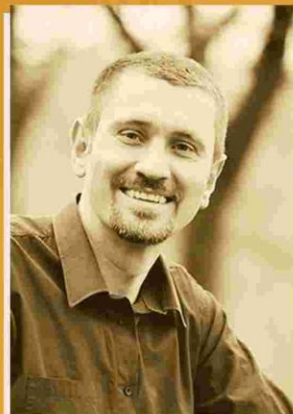

The word that Jesus uses for "preach" means as much as: to call out a message on the market place. For example, once a king issued a new law, it had to be made known in the whole kingdom. That was done by so called herolds, who went to the market places of the cities and loudly and with authority proclaimed the new laws. Their words had weight because they spoke on behalf of the king. As soon as they pronounced a new law, it became effective.

Jesus, our king, has called us to make His Gospel heard.

- Loudly? Yes, loudly – as the TV commercials and even louder.
- With authority? Yes, because it is the message of our king.
- Effective? Yes, effective – with healings, signs, and wonders.

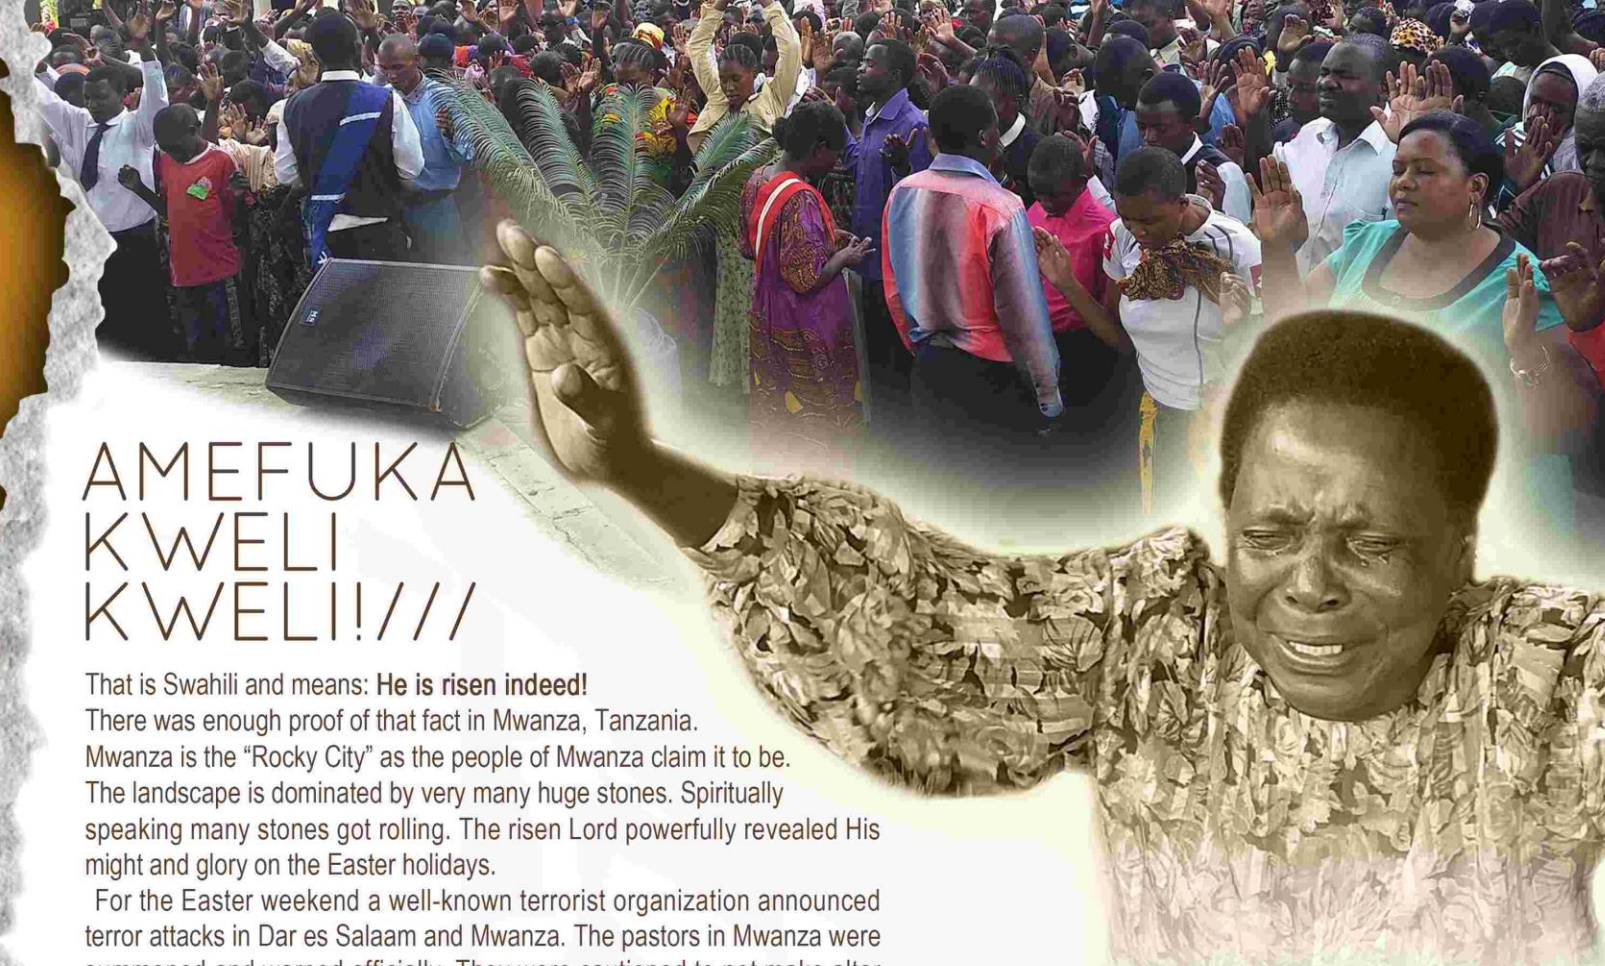

That is what GEN is all about! We make the Gospel heard. Loud enough and in the power of the Holy Spirit, so that it can be heard.

I am grateful to be in the service of my king. The world is my market place and I am happy to be a market crier for Jesus!

Thank you for your support.

D. Schott

AMEFUKA KWELI KWELI!///

That is Swahili and means: He is risen indeed! There was enough proof of that fact in Mwanza, Tanzania. Mwanza is the "Rocky City" as the people of Mwanza claim it to be. The landscape is dominated by very many huge stones. Spiritually speaking many stones got rolling. The risen Lord powerfully revealed His might and glory on the Easter holidays.

For the Easter weekend a well-known terrorist organization announced terror attacks in Dar es Salaam and Mwanza. The pastors in Mwanza were summoned and warned officially. They were cautioned to not make altar calls during that period. Despite the warning, Evangelist Schott preached the Gospel and challenged people to repent of their sins. The visitors flooded the altar and received forgiveness and healing under the watchful eyes of armed security personnel. This morning only, the Lord healed more than 50 people. Nothing harmful happened. The Lord had the victory and the devil suffered a terrible defeat!

Many pastors who partly came from very far distances were schooled and challenged by Evangelist Schott on that weekend.

The more often we BREAK THROUGH the wall of IMPOSSIBILITIES, the faster the RUN-UP for the next challenge.

PENTECOST IN ZAMBIA///

Challenges are part of the day to day missionary life. So it was with the upcoming Pentecost Conference in Chingola, Zambia. Despite months of planning, the conference was cancelled just a few days before it was to take place. Phone talks, emails, and prayers of our prayer warriors followed. Then the all-clear – the conference is still taking place as planned. Challenges make us grow – in character and in faith.

With fiery messages Evangelist Schott challenged the participants of the conference to follow their callings and to live lives totally surrendered to God. Many of the participants were filled again with the power of the Holy Spirit. Songs and wonders happened. On Saturday night, the last night of the conference, more than 60 healings were counted.

On Sunday Daniel preached in the church of Bishop Kazhila. It was truly a Pentecost-Sunday!!! The anointing worked mightily. Hundreds of visitors rededicated their lives to Jesus. Although it was not a Gospel meeting, still a number of people were saved. About 100 people were healed. What a service! Hallelujah!

THE S-WORD///

One should not use the s-word. But what if the s-word is part of a town's name? Then it is on everyone's lips. Yes, the place where the Gospel meetings in Mombasa (Kenya) took place was indeed called cow sh... It is a big square where the cows stood in former days. Those cows would leave their droppings. Hence the name. But that was a long time ago. This particular weekend the square served a heavenly purpose – Evangelism! Revival was in the air! Moved by the Holy Spirit, Christians as well as non-Christians repented of their sins. Jesus saved and healed people. Here just a few testimonies: Among the healed people was a lady who had suffered from a stroke for three years. Another lady who had been battling paralysis for two years was also healed. Back pains caused by an accident, as well as a right shoulder were healed as Evangelist Schott release words of knowledge.

Mombasa is a very tough place spiritually. Previously other ministries had already conducted Gospel meetings at the same square and cancelled the meetings before finishing. Not so this time! The victory belongs to our God!

The resistance of the Muslims in Mombasa is strong. One Pastor reported how the church started under very difficult and even life threatening circumstances. His experiences underline once more the importance of healings and wonders in Evangelism.

Looking back it remains to be noted: If the Lord can show his glory in a place called cow sh... , how much more can he do so in the lives of each and every Christian!

EUROSPIRIT!!!

Revival is happening even in Europe! Since 24 years the EuroSpirit conference in Amsterdam has been a magnet for people who are hungry for more of God. Evangelist Schott was invited by the organizer Bert Panhuis to minister at this year's conference. Some of the GEN staff came along and represented GEN at the stands.

What services! The glory of the Lord was present and the visitors had a seemingly insatiable hunger for more of the Holy Spirit. The fiery messages of Evangelist Schott were accompanied by following signs and wonders. Even long after the preaching, people still came to be prayed for by the Evangelist. There is hope for Europe!

SICILY!!!

This southern part of Italy is characterized by remarkable hospitality. So is the church where Evangelist Schott ministered. The church opened its doors for many African refugees, who are coming to Europe across the Mediterranean Sea. The healing services were characterized by an openness for the Holy Spirit. The praise and worship was anointed and the visitors were hungry for more of Jesus.

Evangelist Schott preached challenging messages. Many responded to the call for repentance. Others anew surrendered their lives to the Lord. Signs and wonders happened. A total of about 120 people were healed over the three days. Here a few examples: neck tumors shrunk, knees healed, arm mobility restored, woman running, right hand opening up again. Thank you Jesus!

THE FULL GOSPEL TO THE WHOLE WORLD!!!

Today, more than ever, people are in desperate need of the full Gospel of salvation, healing, deliverance, and blessing. The Gospel must be preached to the whole world before Jesus returns. GEN is dedicated and committed to reach the nations.

We are always on the lookout for dedicated Christians, who are ready to support us, while we are fulfilling God's assignment: The full Gospel to the whole world!

Join us to bring in a great harvest of souls in the end times by regularly PRAYING, GIVING, WORKING.

All partners receive an official GEN-Gospel-Partner-Certificate. Contact us to find out how you can partner with GEN.
